Okay, Ki-bou, it's all ready.
とてて
Okay, gather up here.
Yay!
All right, today I will teach you how to make Yakiniku,

What ta prepare:
- Pig's Neck Meat
- Rice Brandy
- Apple
- Garlic
- Say Sauce
- Sugar
- Sweet Sake
- Cake
- Pepper
- Marinade
If you don't have neck meat, you can use loin instead.
Once you poke many holes into it with a fork, you grind some pepper over it...
and marinate it in the refrigerator for about a week.
Here, I'm so good at service, so I prepared one that's already been marinated for a week.
Yay!
Oh, then it's a week before we can eat...
We then put it into a heated wok,
If you use too much oil, it will splatter and burn you.
And you sear the whole outside.
You stop the fire, then add to the marinade the mixture of sugar, sweet sake, rice brandy, and coke...
Then you mix and heat it slowly on low heat for about two hours
What's going on down there?

Yes
Do you all get it?
After that, you should put them into tupperware and cool it in a refrigerator for half a day, and it's done

Take care handling it.
There, I prepared the meat, so you all try it.

I've always left these kinds of things for the assistroids to take care of, so...
I'm not good at difficult cooking...
M-Me too?!
I just came over to watch.
Here, you girls too!
What, me too?!

むぅ……
Well, first is the wok...
Is it okay for the grill to twist like this?
Please wait a minute. I'll bring out the data...
Well, I don't think you have to do that much... huh?
Huh?
Elis, your tail is in the marinade!!

Manami-san, how is Yunfa?
Ah, yeah, it seems to be getting used to my place.
I'm glad...
We can't close the gap between civilizations with just simulators after all...
Oh yeah, it'll be delivered to Futaba-san's place today too...
I wonder if she's okay...
Why don't we go there after we do?
But Yunfa seems to be more attached to my mother than me...
She says it's cute when she's talking to Yunfa together with her.

M-Manami-san, calm down!
How do I look scary?!!!
カチン☆
Could it be that Manami-chan scares it away..?

I-I-I didn't see!!
It was clase but I didn't!!

I was watching a monochrome screen on the lap of my "father".

An old movie that was produced before my "father" was born...

The comedic period drama my "father" liked...

My "father" was laughing, and I was happy, so I laughed too.

Those are the only memories I have of my "father"

But before I knew it, my "father" disappeared.

When I asked my mother why

she spat and made a scary face saying,

"That man dumped us and fled."

No, I don't want to, mother...
I don't want to leave this house.
You have to serve society and other people.
That's what your power is for.
Unlike me, a woman with no power, you have to become a well-rounded woman who can do anything.
Even now, I don't want to understand the meaning of those words.
I don't want to think about them
Every syllable of those words is stuck in my head...
Although I didn't know what they meant back then,
From my memory, only the voice flows down
You shouldn't come back here ever again.
Go on.

At the training facility, I cried every night...
Not because the trainings were hard, but because the fact that I was "dumped" was sad.
I was scared of sleeping,
because I would always dream of that time.
So I cried, every night.
and then slept, tiring myself out so I wouldn't have any dreams.
And one day,
the tears dried up.

My parents dumped me
so I too dumped my parents.
